Keizai Society presents summer networking event on 8/28/2010 (Sat) in Serra Park, Sunnyvale! Well-known for its openness, greenery, and beautiful landscape with a man-made water stream and water fountain, the setting is perfect for relaxing and meeting people while enjoying the delicious food. This event is ideal for both networking and catching up with old acquaintances or making new ones! Moreover, the park’s green open field also offers your family members, significant other and friends a place to enjoy outdoor activities, such as playing Frisbee, football, baseball, tennis, etc.

Keizai Society’s theme for 2010 is "Catch the Next Wave - New Opportunities for 2010". As our local and global economies emerge from the recession, new waves of opportunities arise to continue the economic growth and fulfill dreams and aspirations. We hope that your participation in this summer networking event will help enable you to “catch the next wave” in your search for new opportunities and using them to further your business career. So, bring your business cards and enlarge your networking circle!

Due to the anticipated number of attendees, early registration online (www.keizai.org) is highly recommended. We cannot guarantee that there will be room for walk-ins.
