

Join us for a Spooktacular Halloween Happy Hour hosted by Keizai Silicon Valley at the Steins Beer Garden in downtown Mountain View! This festive gathering, generously sponsored by Procopio, promises to be an exciting opportunity to connect with like-minded professionals, share innovative ideas, and expand your network in a relaxed, welcoming atmosphere.

While costumes are optional, we highly encourage everyone to embrace the Halloween spirit and come dressed to impress! Prizes will be awarded for the best costumes, so get creative and let your imagination run wild!

Registration is free but highly recommended to secure your spot. Don't miss out on this chance to mingle, make new connections, and enjoy some spirited fun on this special occasion. We look forward to seeing you there for an evening of networking, laughter, and Halloween cheer!
